Facility Interior

The B&B is also the private home of the hosts: no reception area. It is a lot more informal than a hotel or motel. Lots of information about things to do and visit in the area. Guests are welcome in the large lounge: no need to stay in the bedroom. Everything is on one level: no steps or stairs.

Lounge / breakfast area

When the weather is fine, breakfast can be served on the main deck. There is only a small height difference between indoors and outdoors (50 mm) The dining table is designed so that even people in electric wheelchairs can fit their arm rests under the table top.

Laundry available for guests, hosts will assist if that is needed.

Kitchen

No kitchen facilities for guests but owners very willing to serve coffee and tea when you need a cuppa.
